3 HOT FLAMENCO CAVES IN GRANADA

1/ CUEVAS LOS TARANTOS

Locals have been lapping up zambra – which means ‘party’ in Arabic – the regional flamenco variant, at this atmospheric three-cave spot since 1972.
9 Camino del Sacromonte
Area: Sacromonte

2/ VENTA EL GALLO

The caves of Sacromonte are considered the birthplace of zambra. Here it is often practised barefoot with finger cymbals, and echoes off the traditional decor of this smart and buzzing bolthole venue.
5 Barranco de los Negros
Area: Sacromonte

3/ ZAMBRA MARÍA LA CANASTERA

Beloved for more than half a century (below), this venue’s namesake was a local basketweaver’s daughter whose dancing was known as far away as Barcelona.
89 Camino del Sacromonte
Area: Sacromonte

1/ GAZOMETRO38

This buzzing bar in the shadow of Rome’s old gas plant makes a spritz cocktail with violet liqueur, lychee and prosecco.
38 Via del Gazometro
Area: Ostiense

2/ ERCOLI 1928

Gourmet deli boasting Rome’s only vermouth bar, which mixes a mighty fine Gypsy Spritz with grapefruit, ginger, lime and a generous glug of prosecco.
184 Viale dei Parioli
Area: Parioli

3/ SALOTTA42

A fashionable bar (below right) serving its signature spritz with homemade ginger beer and bitter liqueur made with rhubarb instead of straight Aperol.
42 Piazza di Pietra
Area: Pantheon

4/ BACCANO

Sip on a ritzy Chanel spritz made with Chambord (raspberry liqueur) and Lambrusco in this traditional bistro around the corner from the Trevi fountain.
23 Via delle Muratte
Area: Trevi

5/ PASSUS

Punters spill out onto the pavement at this hotspot which puts a spin on the classic cocktail with its Ulisse spritz (above right), made with grapefruit, basil and cinnamon.
133/135 Via dei Volsci
Area: San Lorenzo
